Numerology Report for Marilyn Monroe

Introduction

This numerology report is prepared for Marilyn Monroe.
Born as Norma Jeane Mortenson, June 1 1926.

Please verify this information before reading this report.

Your Expression Key is 5

This reveals major aspects of your personality

Change, travel, adventure and excitement are the spice of life to you. You need to feel free and unrestricted. You seek variety, fresh and challenging experiences. You are highly adaptive, in fact routine is an anathema to you. You become depressed if you are restricted or tied down. Even from very young you dreamed of visiting far away places, meeting different and unusual people and experiencing the exotic. You are quick tongued and possess boundless enthusiasm. You could be a salesperson, a politician, a lawyer, work in public relations etc. You are able to inspire others with your ideas and dreams. You are practical and can turn your hands to most projects. You are possibly a bit of a gambler, playing for high stakes and your desire for no restrictions and limits could lead you to over indulge the senses, drink, drugs, food sex etc.

You are quick and clever, but you are probably disorganised and find it difficult to stay focused for long. If you are to achieve your dreams you must learn organisation and focus and learn not to scatter your energies in too many directions. Do not let your desire for no limits lead you to abuse your body with seeking self destroying sensory indulgence.

You fall in love very easily and will no doubt have an exciting and varied love life, as time goes by you need to take hold of commitment and not live only in the superficial realm. You need mature and lasting relationships. Develop self discipline and set yourself healthy limits. Learn to master your impulses and develop the power of choice, not driven by any whim or fancy that comes across your path. You will find great satisfaction and fulfillment by learning to finish what you have started, by harnessing your abilities and enthusiasms to make your dreams happen. You have great desires, realise that you have great talents, but unless you learn to direct your gifts you will be doomed to frustration. So much accomplishment and fulfillment is possible for you should you just take yourself in hand and focus your energies.

Your Aspiration Key is 8

Also called Soul Urge, it reveals how you aspire to achieve your goals

Success is your strongest drive. You want power, money - all the comforts that life can offer. You are overwhelmingly ambitious. All your dreams are on a grand scale and so are the results you desire.

As a person of great vision you are able to see the greater goals and you have a grasp of what is necessary to achieve your desired aims. In general you are not a detail person and you need to utilise the talents of those around you to fill in the gaps. Learn to use all your abilities and help develop others. Take a strong leadership role, but do ensure that you set a good example to those you lead with your drive and quality of work. Not necessarily an easy task, but extremely rewarding.

It is necessary to learn to use your power for good and not to use a sledgehammer, when a gentle nudge will suffice. Develop the responsible and caring side of your nature, choosing to make sacrifices for others and treat others as you would wish to be treated yourself.

Understanding others strengths and weaknesses and helping bring out the best in them is a skill that takes work, you can do this. Don't drop the reins of any project that you are involved in. Life needs to be full of challenges for you to feel alive and satisfied. Do not let difficulties frustrate, depress or embitter you, they are inevitable and necessary to your development.

You need to work on balance, choosing the better way, stay determined and courageous, seeing each goal to completion. If you balance all your abilities and traits, returning stronger from disappointment, there is a huge future for you.

Your Realisation Key is 6

A strong indication of how you will most likely achieve your desires

Understanding, warm and compassionate, you draw others to you, especially those in need of your support and comfort. You tend to be a shoulder to cry on, a willing ear in times of trouble. You value justice and seek harmony and peace. You will put aside your own needs and desires for the welfare of others. You can take sacrifice too far, becoming a martyr. Not always the best judge of character, seeing the best in everyone, endeavour not to let yourself be taken advantage of. Do not become too involved in others problems.

You love your home, entertaining, are a wonderful parent and love children. You make a great partner, caring, loving and loyal. With well developed artistic perceptions in music, flowers and gardening, you have a great sense of colour and interior design. Depth of character means more to you than appearance and you are more concerned about comfort and practicality, than fashion.

The number 6 in personality expresses generosity and not common sense when it comes to finance. You are very sensitive to the opinions of others, both in praise as well as criticism. You are easily stressed and tense, possibly causing digestive upsets. You are seen as a protective figure and others are drawn to you as a safe haven and strong and caring shoulder to cry on.

Your Active Key is 7

Also called Growth Number, it assists in development and experience.

Seek understanding, look below the surface, below the obvious and gain an understanding of the true nature and hidden motivations of people and life. In this way you will gain true self perception.

Numerology Report for Marilyn Monroe

Your Herdity Key is 7

This describes your network of friends and family

You come from a family who values the intellect.

Your Patrimony Key is 1

This is an extension of the Expression Key and can reveal more social aspects

Ambitious, innovative and brave, you are a born leader, with innovative ideas, well able to stand alone. You have a pioneering spirit and do not like to be held back by outside influences, you are dynamic and confident of your abilities.

Your organisational skills make you a very successful business man. You need to be able to make your own decisions and employ your own ideas, you are highly influential in your sphere. 1 is the number of the adventurous, the risk taker the fighter, the pioneer. The number of many top people, generals, politicians, businessmen, artists, inventors and activists etc.

It is your endurance and strength that gets you there, you will need to take new paths, to push through barriers and strike out in innovative ways. Bring all your considerable strength of will to bear and do not be overcome. You hold strong opinions and views and you will find that people either love you or hate you, no middle ground.

You have the intense focus and vision needed to reach your goals, you are prepared to stand up for what you believe. These attributes make success more than possible. The down side of your strength is that you can be very self oriented, be domineering and critical of others if they do not reach your high standards. This can push friends and family away. Guard against this and seek a more balanced attitude. It is too easy for you to become so sure of your own rightness that you are inflexible and unable to consider other methods or points of view. You must develop compassion, do not be stubborn and obstinate, be prepared to consider life from other views, be a caring and compassionate leader.

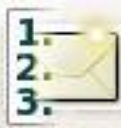

Do not allow pride to subvert you, always be prepared to admit mistakes, able to see the weakness or flaws in your dearly held plans, be ready to change and adapt when necessary. You have all the talents and attributes necessary to be hugely successful.

Your Ideality Key is 9

Your deepest desires are revealed by this key

You really want to be of benefit to others.

Your Structural Key is 1

Numerology Report for Marilyn Monroe

It augments the Realization Key, describing more about the social aspects of your personality

Strong, no one pushes you around. You stand out from the crowd, possibly the leader or you inspire others to follow your lead.

Your Balance Key is 1

This describes how you react when faced with an unexpected situation

'No man (or woman) is an island'. In difficult times you have a tendency to draw apart. You must use the help of others during stress, this will give you a broader base from which to make your decisions. You have an inner strength be sure to use it, but utilise others as well. Be brave, inventive and strong and you will win through.

You were born on the 1st

You are born to lead, with large goals and the drive to achieve them. Working alongside others frustrates you as you have an extremely independent spirit with a dislike for humdrum routine. Your thought processes are sharp and perceptive with a gamblers edge. You like to initiate and blaze a trail for others to follow. Given training, your aptitude for business would enable you to control large organisations. You acquire knowledge to facilitate your purposes not out of a desire for scholarship.

As a trailblazer you have great breadth of vision and are a skillful motivator. Your strength of drive and determination will probably be well tested in the middle years of your career, well equalled by your opportunities for huge success.

Although open to the input of others, you are likely to bulldoze through opposition, if things are not proceeding as you would wish. Control your tendency for anger and frustration and employ your determination, together with your inventiveness and you will no doubt, in the end, achieve your personal and financial goals.

Your Life Path Key is 7

Your path through life is revealed by this number

You know yourself as a spiritual being in pursuit of truth and enlightenment. Your way is dedicated to seeking out the unknown and finding out answers to life and its mysteries.

You have the skills necessary to achieve this end. You are of great intellect, analytical and possessed of excellent concentration. You love a mystery or a puzzle, bringing your mind to bear on fitting the pieces together and coming up with insightful solutions. You love researching a subject in depth, joining theoretical knowledge with creativity and coming up with a practical answer. You need solitude and require time alone for study and contemplation, denied this time apart you become frustrated and irritable. It can be difficult for you to marry this together with maintaining close friendships and with marriage. Your life's partner needs to be understanding and independent. This does not mean that you do not get on well with others, when you have your life in order, you are charming, interesting and entertaining. You enliven social gatherings with your wit and conversation, even loving the centre stage. You do need to return to the peace of your private world after these enjoyable forays into society.

This need within yourself to draw apart can lead to a feeling of isolation, even loneliness. Maintain your contact with the outside world, keep that balance, or it would be possible for you to withdraw too far into yourself. You might lose perspective on reality and become self centred and cynical, causing others to keep their distance, further exacerbating the problem. Contact with humanity keeps your views and opinions broad and real.

You might feel stirrings of envy to others who are less inhibited and gregarious in their social connections. Refrain from being hard on yourself, you are unique and have talents and gifts that have much to offer both the world in general and yourself. Just strive to maintain the lines of communication between yourself and others, share your insights and breadth of experience and always be open to learn from those around you.

Your abilities to learn, research, analyse and put this all together and come up with answers to many problems gives you huge potential for great success and achievement. Age will bring depth of wisdom and sophistication. Seven was beloved by Pythagoras himself for it's great potential spiritually.

Your Maturity Key is 3

This represents your higher consciousness during your mature years

Maturity will bring an increase in your positive attitude, you will become more outgoing and your creativity will thrive. It is possible you will have an increased desire to develop some artistic talent, for example drama, music or writing, if you have not already done so.

Your communication talents will improve and you may find yourself expressing more individuality and flair through your clothing. Guard against being taken in by outward appearances, glamour and displays of extravagance.

A maturity number of 3 means that your social life will become more fun and as you become happier and more optimistic so will your popularity increase.

A preponderance of 3s in your chart will mean that you will have to guard against spreading yourself too thin in your social pursuits and forgetting your responsibilities. If you have few 3s, this maturity number will help you become less serious and stressed. Life will be altogether more enjoyable and relaxed.

Your Subconscious Self Key is 5

This describes your self-image and how you use it

The Master Numerologist

Numerology Report for Marilyn Monroe

Lacking in organisation and focus, your interest is diverted in so many directions and you find it hard to finish anything that you start. Facing difficulties you have a tendency to cut and run, rather than face the problem and win through. You are, however, adaptable and quick to learn. To achieve success you must learn to focus and discipline yourself to finish what you start, working your way through difficulties and obstacles. Accept responsibility, a family and a career would help to give you a reason to apply your considerable talents.

You have a Karmic Lesson Key of 2

Develop diplomacy and tact, you must learn not to always be in the forefront, to need praise. Allow others to recognise your worth from your deeds and actions.

You must strengthen your sensitivity to the feelings and needs of others. Life is going to present you with situations where patience, persistence and cooperation is going to be required.

You have a Karmic Lesson Key of 3

You require too high a standard from yourself. Whenever you are in the forefront you come away and self analyse, putting yourself down for every word or deed that you perceive to be lacking. Do not measure your worth against an impossible standard.

Acknowledge this failing and be kind to yourself, or your enjoyment and fulfillment in life will be restricted and curtailed.

Develop optimism and actively show a happy and joyful demeanour it will become part of you. You are going to be faced by circumstances that demand you to communicate with others and will take creative steps to overcome. You are up to the challenge, believe in yourself.

If you require success in artistic fields, it will take determination and persistence, as it will in all worthwhile forms of endeavour.

You have a Karmic Lesson Key of 7

You have been somewhat of a generalist, gaining smatterings of knowledge and talents. Develop diligence and determination and become an expert at specific skills. Learn to appraise yourself honestly and take your considerable abilities and develop them fully.

Start to step back and look more deeply at issues and people, do not make decisions from just the surface appearance. You will not mature and develop depth of character until you learn to look below the superficial.

As this lesson key is the same as your life path key, the effects of this are diminished

You have a Karmic Lesson Key of 8

The Master Numerologist

Numerology Report for Marilyn Monroe

Not bad at business, you seem to attract money, but you can also let it slip through your fingers, mainly due to lack of caution. You value your independence and do not like to be told how to do things or even accept advice. One of the pitfalls of this stubborn attitude is that you do not accept help easily and are not able to achieve all that is possible, with the assistance that others can give. This can cause you to over stretch yourself.

Set about learning financial acumen, discipline yourself to apply the principals that you learn. Learn not to over reach your financial resources and become an efficient and practical manager of your resources.

As this lesson key is the same as your aspiration key, the effects of this are diminished

You have a Hidden Passion Key of 5

You need fresh experiences, change, new places and challenges. Extremely flexible and versatile, you are able to learn languages easily and have a way with words. You would be great at marketing, writing and work that involves relating to others.

You have a compulsion to indulge the senses to the degree that it is not good for you. Learn to moderate these indulgences. You have a marvelous wit, coupled with a ready tongue and great originality.

However, you need to marry your tendencies and unconventionality with the fact that your happiness and fulfillment also requires you ultimately to commit in both relationship and career. There has to come a time when your wanderlust gives way to focusing with a person, certain friendships and specialist skills in a career.

Numerology Report for Marilyn Monroe

Your Education Cycle Key is 6

Your Education Cycle lasts from 1926 to 1955

This is a time for cementing strong relationships and taking on responsibility. Commitment, relationships and family matters are becoming more to the forefront of your mind. If you have a strong and caring relationship now is the time to make a deeper commitment, accept and return love. Much harmony and support is achievable now, you are needed and need those around you very much. An excellent time for marriage, partnerships and joint endeavours. On the other side of the coin, this the time to finish badly founded commitments, partnerships or friendships. This period is good for further development and growth in any artistic or self expressive abilities you possess and a favourable environment to commence business endeavours.

Progress and development is to be achieved through cooperation, adaptation and melding of views and abilities.

Your Productive Cycle Key is 1

Your Productive Cycle lasts from 1956 to 1982

A time of great testing, when you will need all your strength, courage and adaptability. Draw from your core all of your strengths and abilities to establish your independence and your unique nature.

A necessary period of balancing all your talents and gifts and fixing the goals for your life. Your determination and focus will be tested, but you are well capable of drawing all that is necessary from your inner being and you will emerge all the stronger, if you hold fast. This period will demand strength, the ability to bounce back from set backs and a need to stand on your own two feet, in doing so these attributes will be rooted into your personality for all time.

Remember this is a period of great progress for you!

Your Harvest Cycle Key is 9

Your Harvest Cycle starts from 1983

This is a time when you are being asked to develop a broader perspective towards the world and humanity than you have held previously. You need to step away from yourself and your own goals and incorporate into your vision a need to be of service to others. Ideas and dreams will flood your mind, not all will be possible, but there is room for progress to be made. Fulfillment and inner enrichment lie with developing humanitarian principles and a need to be of service to others.

You will be rewarded in focusing your energies towards endeavours that benefit others as well as yourself. Creativity and intuition will grow as you direct your efforts toward the welfare of others, possibly in education or more practical endeavours.

Numerology Report for Marilyn Monroe

Your first pinnacle starts 1926 and runs to 1955

It is described by the key 7

This is a period for inner growth and increased self awareness. You will be much preoccupied with who you are and why you are here. You will require time for meditation and contemplation, this leads to much inner growth and faith. You will find sustenance from your developing inner life and a feeling of unity with the world.

The beauties of nature and the written word will become more important to you and you will find yourself dedicating much time to some area of development. Concentration and focus will become easy for you and your ability to study, research and analyse will be enhanced. You will intuitively grasp direction and understanding.

The influence of this pinnacle will cause you to specialise in a chosen field and become an expert within your particular realm. You will no longer be taken in by the superficial, but pry beneath the surface. It is possible that you will be lead into a teaching role.

Make an effort to enhance personal relationships and explain what you are feeling and doing, ensuring family and friends do not feel rejected by your need for times of solitude. The 7 pinnacle causes spiritual growth, and a maturity of knowledge and wisdom, setting the foundation for much contentment and fulfillment in later life.

Do not become selfish and critical by withdrawing from the people around you. Retain a sense of perspective that comes from rubbing shoulders with humanity. Never succumb to sarcasm but with your deepening wisdom and maturity be gentle on yourself and others. Know that perfection is just a dream. Grasp this opportunity to become a person of rare insight and clarity of thinking.

Your second pinnacle starts 1955 to 1964

It is described by the key 1

This is a time when you are going to need, courage, initiative, the ability to bounce back and independence. There will be set backs and pit falls and you must pick yourself up and keep going. This pinnacle is to cause growth in your strength of will. You will probably not receive much support from those around you, you will be required to stand alone to a degree. Stand firm, do not give up and do not give in to self pity.

You will have to draw on a lot of determination to remain focused on your goals, you will need to develop flexible strategies and above all, be resilient. By being tested you will come out with your abilities all the stronger and a confidence in your own resourcefulness. Guard against wallowing in self pity and selfishness, become strong, not stubborn. Seek the advice of others, but make your own decisions.

It is times like these that abilities are strengthened and gifts that you did not think you had will manifest themselves. You will be a stronger and more daring leader and you will develop many innovative strategies.

The Master Numerologist

Numerology Report for Marilyn Monroe

Organisational and managerial skills will mature. You will come out of this time with more confidence in your dreams and aspirations. It is these characteristics that will enable you to have great success and accomplish much.

Your third pinnacle starts 1964 to 1973

It is described by the key 8

During this period you will experience increasing abilities in your business and financial dealings. A time of material growth and expansion results from all the hard work you have put in. Your personal power will increase, you will have renewed confidence in your judgement and forward thinking, it is these factors that produce your success.

Those around you are aware of your power and abilities, they trust and rely on you. Their respect means that there is no need to coerce or bulldoze, they look to you for your leadership. Your broad perspective will enable you to manage large endeavours, problems do not present themselves as obstacles, but more of a challenge or a puzzle to be solved. Your increased confidence in your abilities will allow you to influence the outcome of situations in an amazing way and you will experience clarity of vision as you take great strides towards your goals.

During this pinnacle it will be necessary for you to remain strong in your personal integrity and your inner values. Do not allow money and status to take precedence over the value of people and other less material priorities. This is a time for testing your ability to keep material and spiritual values in balance. Do not become a slave to money.

If you achieve and maintain this balance, your rewards in both realms will be great, bringing both material success and inner fulfillment.

Your fourth pinnacle starts 1973

It is described by the key 6

During this period family, friends and community will hold great importance to you. Responsibilities will grow, but your ability to hold your life in balance and see things from a wide perspective will allow you to cope well.

Your family will take up a lot of your time, if you are married, with children, much support and love will be required. You will be the cornerstone of your family, with many seeking your advice and help. You will be very aware of being needed. This pinnacle will bring a feeling of love and closeness, take up the challenges required of you, develop your skills of peacemaking, you may be the only who can accomplish harmony in the situation. It is while in this pinnacle that families are started, children born and long term commitments made. You will become the centre of your world.

Numerology Report for Marilyn Monroe

Maintain your self respect, serving others does not mean that you become a door mat for others. Set your boundaries and keep your relationships healthy. You will find that this a good period for growth in both business and financial affairs. Your developing diplomatic and empathic skills help in work areas as well as giving you options in the areas of counselling healing vocations.

It is possible that you will become more aware of a need to look after yourself in a physical sense, correcting diet and incorporating exercise. With an increased desire to be of help to others you must learn wisdom in knowing what is appropriate and what is interference. Pinnacle 6 is full of growth and progress towards maturity, developing abilities needed to be a partner, a businessperson and a functioning member of the community. Do balance your time and ensure that you are not stretched too thinly.

Your first Challenge key is 1

It is possible for travel and change to become too much of a way of life. New experiences are a way of building breadth of mind, knowledge and wisdom, but they can also be a means of running away, not facing up to the need to grow from within and deal with the challenges that life throws up.

Learn the value of establishing deep and meaningful relationships that endure. Develop tolerance for others, endeavouring to understand and respect their feelings and motivations. In this way you will have people in your life who are friends and companions in the deepest meaning of the words.

Resist the compulsion to escape when things do not conform to your desires, develop perseverance in the face of difficulties and be prepared to work at friendships and situations. Developing strength of character and wisdom.

Your second Challenge key is 2

Your overwhelming compulsion for money and power could well swamp other gifts and characteristics that go toward your spiritual welfare.

Do not allow your strong ambitions to isolate and shut out other aspects of life that also require development and effort. In the race to fulfill your material goals you could well turn your back on the better aspects of your character, such as integrity, compassion, belief in the rights of others.

Your challenge is to seek balance, acknowledge your strong need to succeed, but make time for service to others, developing the talents and abilities of those around you. Never lay down truth and integrity in the race to succeed. In truth you can 'gain the whole world, but lose your soul' Don't find out too late what really matters.

Your third Challenge key is 3

One of your biggest problems is self criticism. You want to be thought of well , but doubt your own abilities and come away from social interaction examining every nuance of the time spent and tear yourself to pieces afterward.

Too often you keep all interaction with others totally superficial to avoid hurt and cover up your feelings with jokes or trivial conversation. As a result your jokes and conversations can be rather too forced. Life feels at times solitary and lonely.

Finding an outlet for yourself and your creativity in hobbies or outdoor pursuits may help you. Developing like interests and talents with those around you. Do not isolate yourself still further but find something you enjoy.

Your challenge is to step away from the exhausting process of self criticism and learn to value yourself without being hung up on the perceived opinions of others. Learn to value yourself and your own unique talents and abilities.
